NOTES. e article in e Sunday of e resolved e public build- e cadam, the e Hospicio de e hospital, e the Lunatic

The Paseo de Julio macadam from the Barranca de la Recoleta to the Avenue of Palermo is certainly one of the most necessary improvements; a wall sixteen yards wide will be a resort of predilection for both poor and rich. The Municipality has obtained from most of the neighboring proprietors a compromise to make fine large side-walks, for the benefit of those who cannot afford a carriage and must walk.

The road will be more solidly constructed than either the Flores or Belgrano highways. The works are much advanced and will be finished in two months. Two new streets have also been opened and will soon be reduced to a level and be paved.

The Cemetery works are actively carried on. The frontage was not finished as well as the autopsy parlor, and the Manager's apartment. On the 24 November they will be inaugurated, under the presidency of the Archbishop and of the President of the Republic.

The interior of the Cemetery has been greatly changed. The avenues and the monuments present a remarkable change; everything is in perfect order and well cared. The old monuments have been repaired, and about 130 are undergoing same at present.

A Pantheon is being constructed for the remains of the statesmen who have exercised the post of First Magistrate of the Nation. The cells number 25.

The Plaza of the Recoleta has also changed, and gardens have been made: we note an increase in the number of benches. In the centre is a large fountain, like those in the Plaza Victoria, and others are being erected. Sr. Buschiazzi, Municipal architect, inspects the works.

The Asilo de Mendigos is in perfect order, and the building is being rapidly enlarged. In spite of the surrounding misery of the 450 poor inmates, there is an aspect of comfort about the place. The extension of the building will meet a much felt want and rid our streets of beggars.

The Buenos Aires Hospital, situated in the square formed by Calles Paraguay, Cordoba, Junin and Andes, is a fine building, and one that we have previously described. Every attention has been paid to hygienic qualities. Dr. Dr. Jose Mario Bosch superintends the medical service, his long experience, great knowledge and special qualities being a guarantee for the efficacy of the service in this large hospital.

The San Roque Hospital, in the Calles Mexico and Rioja, behind the Caridad, will be finished next winter: the extension works were temporarily suspended, owing to want of funds: four spacious apartments, accommodating 24 patients each, have already been added to the building. The San Roque works employ from 45 to 50 workmen per day, under the superintendence of the Municipal architect, Sr. Buschiazzi and Dr. Adolfo Tuñer, one of the best, most active and conscientious employees of the Municipality.

The Lunatic Asylum is daily making great strides to reach the position it should acquire in this city. At the head of the establishment is Dr. Lucio Melendez, who cherishes quite a passion for lunatics. This distinguished gentleman uses the hydropathic system and calms all excesses of madness with a lukewarm 'donche', more or less protracted. The building is also being enlarged.

The President of the Municipality and his secretary Mr. Ibarrio, pay unceasing attention to all these establishments. We tender a sincere and public congratulation to the Municipality for its laudable efforts.

TERRIBLE RAILWAY ACCIDENT IN FRANCE.
MANY PERSONS KILLED.
As briefly reported last night a dreadful collision occurred on the Lyons Railway, just before ten o'clock yesterday morning. A slow passenger train from Montargis arrived at the Charenton Station twelve minutes behind time, and before it could be shunted on to the siding to allow the 'lightning' train from Marseilles to pass, the latter came up and dashed into it. To add to the horror of the event, the travellers in the Parliamentary train saw the train from Marseilles approaching, and some of them tried to jump out of the carriages. The driver of the slow train put on all his steam, but it was too late, and the next second an awful crash took place. The engine of the 'lightning' train dashed into the other and literally smashed four of the carriages. The scene that followed was indescribable. For some minutes the wildest confusion prevailed, but the first horrible sight over, the railway authorities set to organising relief. The police and military in the neighbourhood were soon called to the spot to assist the railway servants in their task. The sight was heartrending. Heaped up in a large mass lay the wreck of the four carriages and their dying and dead freight. To extricate the victims was a labour of some time. Their shrieks rent the air, whilst their friends and fellow-passengers gathered round, some weeping, others fainting, and all pale with fright and terror. The Prefect of Police, the Procureur of the Republic and other officials were not long in arriving to superintend the measures taken for the relief of the victims. Twelve dead bodies, fearfully mutilated, and about 20 injured, were gradually extricated from the ruins and conveyed to the waiting-room of the Charenton Station, where doctors were in attendance. Mr Reynold, inspector at the Lyons Station, came down in search of his wife and daughter, who were in the slow train. He found both of them seriously wounded. As the work of rescue continued, the victims were discovered to be more numerous; but great difficulty, states the Paris correspondent of the Standard, was experienced in being able to obtain precise information, owing to the reluctance of the railway authorities. As far as at present known 19 persons were killed on the spot. Their bodies were subsequently conveyed to a shed outside the station. The wounded are far more numerous than the dead, and their injuries are for the most part very serious. They have been dispersed in the private houses, hospitals and asylums of Charenton, and some, having for a time been kept at the station, were at one o'clock sent to Orbel. A few also elected to return to their homes in Paris in private carriages. Of these, one, a woman, died on the way. One of the railway carriages, which was smashed to atoms, was occupied by a Musical Society of La Ferte d'Alais, which was on its way to Brighton. These unfortunate people furnished the largest contingent to the victims of this deplorable accident. The dead include two young children, one a boy and the other a girl, who were not in the same carriage and whose bodies have not yet been claimed. It is only too probable that their parents have shared their sad fate. Some of the bodies are so horribly mutilated that identification will be difficult. It was the slow train which furnished all the victims, the passengers of the 'lightning' express escaping with a severe shaking. In this latter train was the brother of the King of Siam and his suite, who were in no way injured.

EDITOR'S TABLE.
The Chilean Question is getting an angry look. It is the topic of anxious comment in every circle. The Republic's leader yesterday does not look like peace. As for the intervention of the U. States in the Pacific, which the 'goburns' have been discussing so warmly for a week past, the whole delusion has been knocked on the head by Minister Kilpatrick's note to the Chilean Minister of Foreign Affairs, which we give in another column. It is clear that the Great Republic will not interfere, even if every power in South America goes to war.

Things in Peru are in a truly awful state. An English resident here received a letter yesterday from a countryman in Lima, in which he says that everything is going from bad to worse there. Great misery prevails. The 'Sol' is down to three pence; no one has a real. The writer invested $500 some years ago in Lima Gas shares, and now they represent nominally $37, but no buyer is to be found even at that. Everything else is on the same desperate footing. What a fearful state of affairs.

There was a whisper in epicurean circles yesterday that a large consignment of the world renowned Bavarian beer of G. N. Kurz of Nuremberg has just arrived to the leading firm of Messrs E. Torquise and Co. All Germans, and not a few foreigners, know the status of this famous beer, and it takes Bass and Allsop all they can do to hold their own against it.

To-night is the benefit night of the first tenor of Mr. Gran's Company, Monstern Matras. This very popular actor and singer will, we have no doubt, attract a full house, as very few singers have ever been more appreciated here than Mr. Matras. The piece given is 'Paul et Virginie', the music of which is exquisitely sweet, and as this is positively the last representation of this beautiful opera, we recommend amateurs not to miss the opportunity. Mademoiselle Leroux will act as Virginie, and it is almost needless to say that her fascinating figure is worth walking twenty miles to gaze on.

A madman, young and fashionably dressed, entered a family house in Calle Defensa on Tuesday night, selected the nearest bedroom in a undressed, and 'tumbled in.' When taken to the Police he refused any explanation of his freak.

The latest news from Bolivia is rather important. That republic has now on a war footing an army of 15,000 men, well armed and supplied with material. In Lima so many Chilean soldiers have been assassinated in the streets lately that their companions have shot several citizens in cold blood. When will this sad struggle cease? Don Emilio Castro is rapidly recovering, but has not as yet been allowed to speak a word since he was wounded. His complete recovery is merely a question of time.

It appears that a start has been made in this country in the Frozen Meat Export line. The fifteen years' privilege to Mr. Henry James, representative of the Argentine Frozen Meat Company (Limited), 'the fabrica' will be in Rosario, and two years time allowed to open it. Meanwhile Australia is already deep in this profitable business, and Australian mutton chops are on London breakfast tables every morning.

President Roca was a year in office yesterday. His private residence was crowded with visitors who called to congratulate him, and military bands serenaded him. The Mediterranean steamer Poiton arrived yesterday at Montevideo, and her mails will be up this morning. Her news is unimportant.

General Sarmiento published in yesterday's National an eloquent letter on Sunday Closing. The veteran statesman is wholly in favour of observing Sunday, and his word will carry immense weight in the controversy.

We heard a fit-bit of amateur dramatic news yesterday. The highly talented author of 'Our Convent', which appeared in our columns a couple of months ago, is coming out in his old ship the R.M.S. Elbe, and has promised to take part in an amateur dramatic musical-sleight of hand entertainment in conjunction with our talented friend Mr. William Martin and his invincible corps. Dr. S. was a pupil of Hermann in the wizard line; he is one of the very few Musical Doctors in England, and as an amateur actor few can equal him, so the British residents may prepare for a genuine treat on his arrival. The Elbe will be here about the 21st.

Another attempt at suicide in Montevideo was reported yesterday, by a young gentleman who got tired of life owing to his big brother having administered a mild correction for some fault of his. Fortunately the doctors came in time to administer an antidote to the poison taken.

The Interior strides ahead in spite of wars and rumours of war. The gross receipts of the Central Argentine Railway in September were $110,000, leaving a net profit of $1,000. Central Argentines will soon be as good holding as Gt. Southern, and better than Treasury Bills.

President Caballero of Paraguay, it is asserted, intends offering himself for re-election for a second term of the Chief Magistracy. He is about as good a President as Paraguay could have, if there are no Constitutional impediments to his re-election.

The Continental Exhibition in Plaza Once is progressing fast and assuming shape. We hear from Rio that much interest is taken there in the exhibition, and a variety of exhibits may be expected from our country. There is but very little enthusiasm for it exhibited in the Interior, San Juan, Cordoba, Entre Rios and Santa Fe being the only provinces that have moved in the matter and that merely to the extent of naming the 'Comision' without which no South American enterprise can possibly get to fruition. Yesterday tenders for flags and banners were called for, as also for the occupation of the 19 kiosks which the building will contain. Everything looks promising for success and against the superstitious view of some pessimists that something is bound to turn up to prevent the Show coming off.

The Diario gives a sketch of President Calderon of Peru, who recently fled to Europe. He is a lawyer, but not a very distinguished one, and has a large fortune, made in railway and guano speculations. He was very unpopular in Peru.

When the Colon Theatre passes into the hands of the Municipality, which will be very soon, the interior of the house will be remodelled, its acoustic properties improved, and the whole 'salie' redecorated in gorgeous style, so that it will surpass most theatres in Europe. The Lord Mayor has set his heart on the thing. It is the finest theatre in South America.

The Commissioner General of Immigration reports the total arrivals during September at 2,850; 1,039 direct from Europe and the rest via Montevideo.

According to late advices from Europe petroleum 'fils' has been struck in the north of Hanover. Crowds of speculators are reported arriving on the spot, which is reported to be very rich in oil. French papers deny this, and at the same time state that any quantity of oil is to be found in the neighbourhood of Lyons.

The body of a man was discovered yesterday in Calle Caseros, and, judging from the appearance of the corpse, it must have lain there for about a month. Near the body a revolver was picked up, the chambers of which were found to be loaded. On examining the remains, it was found that a bullet had been fired into the head through the right eye, which must have caused instantaneous death. It is supposed that the unfortunate man committed suicide.

Blocks of asphalt, compressed under a heavy pressure, and in which crushed limestone, heated and mixed with the bitumen at 250° Fahr., and then cooled in water when moulded, are being tried in Queen Victoria-street, London, near the Mansion House.

The shopkeepers' assistants in Mercedes have taken up the Sunday closing movement. We wish them every success, and commend them to our good friend, Dr. Nicolas Lowe, who, we feel certain, will aid their good cause in every way.

H.M.'s Consul has requested the Captain of the Port to arrest some English sailors who are accused of mutiny on board.

Last night Dr. Du. Jose Jorge led to the Hymeneal altar the lovely Señora Maria Escalada. We wish them every happiness.

There will be no peaches this year in San Juan or Mendoza. A 'bicho' has got into the trees and destroyed them. There is a bad 'seca' in Cordoba and San Luis; no rain for months, at least so the papers to hand yesterday say.

SUNDAY CLOSING.

Buenos Aires, Oct. 11, 1881.
Dear Mr. Mullhal,

On reading your able leader in praise of the 'Sunday closing movement,' I said to myself, he is at last taking 'the right side of things.' But, oh! I do hope, dear Mr. Mullhal, that when your Packet Edition next appears on a Sunday, you will not violate the law by keeping your office open till 11 a.m. for the sale.

Yours, &c.,
A Lady Subscriber.

There was a certain reaction in the gold market today; prices that had been very low yesterday at 25.50, rose to 26.50, but for the most part the market was very weak.

This being the first anniversary of General Roca's Government, the President was visited by crowds of friends who called to congratulate him on his political 'empulso', and express a hope that the ensuing year would prove as prosperous as the last. At the National Government House and at the President's private residence, the Chilean question was the subject of much conversation. The Chilean question was the subject of much conversation. The Chilean question was the subject of much conversation.

The article in the 14th Sept. publishes the Chilean question was talked of by the whole Bole; it is so much to the point that many attach great importance to the remarks, and some of the brokers think that the Argentine Government will not consent to extend the time for the approval of the treaty, except in the form of an ultimatum. Never before has the Chilean question been so much the subject of conversation as now, and it would be improper on our part to conceal from our readers the market's apprehensions. It is a view that with the arrival of new wool, this amount of exchange offering and the heavy importations of specie, gold would tend to be at par, but for the Chilean dollar, which we note is increasing in value.

The mails by Lamport & Holt's steamer are to 13th from London. The cotton corner threatened to be serious, but the English mills were about to stop for 3 weeks. Cotton in the U. States is 14 cents against 10.45 last May. Consoles are again down to 98, and the Eastern Argentine Railway has launched on the market a 1,000 concessionaire shares. The Times of the 14th Sept. publishes the following:—

"We have received the following letter, among others, with reference to the Argentine 9 1/2 Treasury Bonds, which disposes of one or two statements made by previous correspondents on this subject:—
"Sir,
"I trust you will find room in your columns for the correction of the Argentine 9 1/2 Treasury Bonds.
"Our correspondent 'An Argentine Bondholder' writes to the effect that the Argentine Government are long connected with the produce business, and that they are long connected with the produce business, and that they are long connected with the produce business.

Montevideo, was also welcomed, he says no wool sales so far down there.

The director of the ring to-day Mr. Pedro Fraguero, the well known broker, held a judicial auction of two shares of the Calabina Mole and Dupont; the shares are for $1,000 each and the bidding began as low as $150, rising steadily to $1,500 per share, at which they were knocked down to Sr. Becs, considered a great bargain; these shares, if sold a couple of months ago, would have fetched a premium.

Mr. D. Mathew sold 3,000 ar. of new wool on contract on October 1st at 81 in South at 81; and we have of two sales in Canelas on contract at 91 and 100 m/c.

The Police have brought the freshest date from Europe to 15th Sept.; nothing very new. All the end of next month a Belgian colony, some 30 families, is expected from Europe, and Mr. Navarro is busy arranging the lands for them.

The news current about the fiscal having been given at the Bank 300,000, is insufficient; many think it is all bluff.

A German ultramar vessel with grain to Montevideo, moved to-day alongside the Catalina mole.

The sale of a splendid pair of carriage horses, printed at the Exhibition, is reported for 30,000 m/c; Mr. Cambores seller, Mr. San-buier.

The sale of 4000 shares at 117-118-119-120-121-122-123-124-125-126-127-128-129-130-131-132-133-134-135-136-137-138-139-140-141-142-143-144-145-146-147-148-149-150-151-152-153-154-155-156-157-158-159-160-161-162-163-164-165-166-167-168-169-170-171-172-173-174-175-176-177-178-179-180-181-182-183-184-185-186-187-188-189-190-191-192-193-194-195-196-197-198-199-200-201-202-203-204-205-206-207-208-209-210-211-212-213-214-215-216-217-218-219-220-221-222-223-224-225-226-227-228-229-230-231-232-233-234-235-236-237-238-239-240-241-242-243-244-245-246-247-248-249-250-251-252-253-254-255-256-257-258-259-260-261-262-263-264-265-266-267-268-269-270-271-272-273-274-275-276-277-278-279-280-281-282-283-284-285-286-287-288-289-290-291-292-293-294-295-296-297-298-299-300-301-302-303-304-305-306-307-308-309-310-311-312-313-314-315-316-317-318-319-320-321-322-323-324-325-326-327-328-329-330-331-332-333-334-335-336-337-338-339-340-341-342-343-344-345-346-347-348-349-350-351-352-353-354-355-356-357-358-359-360-361-362-363-364-365-366-367-368-369-370-371-372-373-374-375-376-377-378-379-380-381-382-383-384-385-386-387-388-389-390-391-392-393-394-395-396-397-398-399-400-401-402-403-404-405-406-407-408-409-410-411-412-413-414-415-416-417-418-419-420-421-422-423-424-425-426-427-428-429-430-431-432-433-434-435-436-437-438-439-440-441-442-443-444-445-446-447-448-449-450-451-452-453-454-455-456-457-458-459-460-461-462-463-464-465-466-467-468-469-470-471-472-473-474-475-476-477-478-479-480-481-482-483-484-485-486-487-488-489-490-491-492-493-494-495-496-497-498-499-500-501-502-503-504-505-506-507-508-509-510-511-512-513-514-515-516-517-518-519-520-521-522-523-524-525-526-527-528-529-530-531-532-5

The Strabo's Mails.

London, September 13th.

We learn from Cairo that the officers have refused to accept any conditions whatever unless the three points embodied in their previous demands be first conceded. Cherif Pacha has therefore definitely refused to attempt the formation of a Ministry, and has withdrawn from the negotiations. The English Controller-General has also declined to intervene further. The officers say they will be supported by 80,000 Bedouins. Our Correspondent at Cairo says that a European occupation or a Turkish occupation under European supervision is almost certain.

Our Special Correspondent at Larissa telegraphs that the town was occupied yesterday morning by a division of the Greek Army of 10,000 men, amidst the enthusiastic acclamations of the Christian population and the Jewish community. The Turkish troops evacuated the place an hour before the entry of the first Greek detachment, without waiting for the customary ceremonies.

A special telegram from our Geneva Correspondent states that Elm in the Canton of Glarus, has been destroyed by a fall of rock, and that 200 persons are believed to be buried beneath the ruins.

Yesterday the fifth International Congress of Orientalists was opened in Berlin. About 150 foreign savants were present, besides a large number of other persons. The Minister of Public Instruction, in the name of the Prussian Government, welcomed the Congress to Berlin.

Our Correspondent at Washington telegraphs that an attempt was made on Sunday afternoon to shoot Guiteau by a soldier named Mason, one of those detailed to guard him. The ball passed within a few inches of Guiteau's head, and lodged in the wall of the cell. Mason when arrested admitted that he fired the shot, and that he intended to kill the prisoner.

Our New York Correspondent telegraphs that the drought has ended in the U. States. Rain has fallen throughout the country during the last four days. It comes too late, our Correspondent adds, to be of any service to the crops.

A telegram from the Viceroy states that the Amer camped, on the 10th, at Bandi-Lakheh, eight miles from Candahar. Firing was heard in the direction of that city on the 10 and 11th.

Last night Mr. W. H. Gladstone and Mr. G. W. Hastings, the members for East Worcestershire, addressed their constituents at Dudley. Mr. W. H. Gladstone stated that a Land Bill would have to be provided for England, and he believed that ere long people would insist upon the franchise being extended to the counties. Referring to Irish affairs, he said that grievances were Mr. Parnell's stock-in-trade. He ridiculed the idea of protection as now advocated by Conservative candidates, and contended that it would not do the Conservative party any good. Mr. Hastings said he considered the Irish Land Act would be the means of restoring peace in Ireland.

The question of the fish supply of London was again discussed yesterday at a special meeting of the Court of Common Council, held at Guildhall, under the presidency of the Lord Mayor. Mr. Deputy Radkin removed his former resolution, rejected on the last occasion, that it be referred to in their report, and of constructing a market thereon, and as to the ability of vessels to get to a market so situated. Mr. Cross moved the previous question. Alderman Sir A. Lusk, M.P., begged the Court to be careful, for the time of giving an account of their stewardship might be nearer than they expected. Eventually, Mr. Deputy Radkin's motion, with a rider including all the sites in the inquiry, was carried by 89 votes to 32. Notice was given of a further amendment in favour of Billingsgate, provided the site of the Oastman-house or the adjoining property could be incorporated with it, and the debate was adjourned to Thursday.

The fourteenth annual Trades Union Congress met yesterday at Andrew's Hall, Newman-street. About 200 delegates were present. Mr. Crawford, chairman of the Parliamentary Committee during the past year, was temporarily the chairman, and he delivered the opening address. The officers were the same. Mr. B. Conlon (Operative Bricklayers) being appointed chairman. A resolution of sympathy with President Garfield and his family was passed, and was ordered to be forwarded to the American Minister in London. Mr. Broadhurst, M.P., read the report of the Parliamentary Committee, and the Congress adjourned.

The proceedings of the Methodist (Ecumenical) Conference were resumed yesterday at the City-road Chapel. The Rev. B. E. Jenkinson, of the British Wesleyan Methodist Church, presided. The Rev. J. Baker, of the same Church, read a paper on 'Methodism and the Lord's Day.' A strict religious observance of Sunday was advocated in the paper and by the ministers who took part in the discussion. Bishop D. A. Payne, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, read a paper 'On the Relation of Methodism to the Temperance Movement.' The paper and the discussion were both in favour of total abstinence from intoxicating drinks. In the afternoon the Rev. O. Garrett, of the British Wesleyan Methodist Church, read a paper 'On Juvenile Temperance Organizations and their Promotion through the Sunday School and the Rev. Dr. Walden, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, read a paper on 'Civil Measures to Suppress Intemperance, and the Relation of the Church to such Measures.' In the evening a meeting, presided over by General Clinton B. Fisk, of New Jersey, was held in Exeter Hall.

The Oxford Town Council yesterday adopted a precept levying a rate upon the various parishes to meet the cost of the recent Election Commission, amounting to £3,781 5s 8d.

A lawn tennis tournament, of which some account will be found in a special article in another column, was commenced at Eastbourne yesterday. Thirty-two players (gentlemen amateurs) entered. It is expected that the rounds necessary to exhaust the list will occupy several days. The winner of the last set will receive as a prize a fifty-guinea silver cup.

The Chinnery Regatta was concluded yesterday. The junior race was won by J. Rix, D. Owen being second, and G. Thomas third. The principal race was won by R. W. Boyl, J. Langan and J. Hawdon being second and third respectively.

Seven publicans were summoned before the Broom magistrates yesterday for having kept their houses open on a Sunday. The Bench, not having received a copy of the Sunday Closing Act, dismissed the summons. A special meeting of the Oxford Watch Committee was held yesterday with reference to the Act, and it was resolved that the committee should decline to give instructions to the police until the meaning of the Act had been defined by a competent authority.

The stock markets yesterday were dull upon the approach of the settlement. Consols declined to 98 1/2 for money, and to 98 1/16 to 99 for the account. Great Northern and North British stocks were exceptionally good, while Canadian, American, and foreign Government issues receded. Egyptian and Turkish were depressed upon the political news from Egypt. £100,000 in gold was taken from the Bank of England, chiefly for Turkey.

STATE OF IRELAND.

Summons have been issued convening a meeting of the Senate of the Royal University of Ireland for Friday, 30th inst., to consider the modifications recommended by the Standing Committee in the financial scheme which was submitted to Parliament in April last, but which must be considerably altered, having regard to the limited amount of the Parliamentary grant.

Mr. T. P. O'Connor, M.P., visited Mr. A. J. Kettle to-day in Kilmallick Prison. Mr. O'Connor states that Mr. Kettle is worn-looking, but otherwise appears to be in good health and spirits.

The subscription towards the guarantee fund for the exhibition of Irish manufactures proposed to be held next year, to-day reach the total of £12,505.

A daring attack was made by poachers two nights since on the Lower Shannon. The conservatory steam launch came upon a number of fishermen fishing for salmon with illegal nets, which were brought up towards Limerick. When approaching the cove, however, the poachers, who were in a boat, suddenly rowed away with the nets, and chase was given in another boat, manned by three balliffs. The latter were seen by a large crowd from the river banks, and they were stoned so vigorously that they had to give up the pursuit. The balliffs ran ashore and got away, but the crowd smashed in their boat, a new one worth £20, with stones. Informations have been sworn in the case, and a claim for £20 lodged by the conservators.

There are now seven hundred constabulary from different parts of the country stationed in Limerick for duty during the races. No extra military have arrived, but the troops of all arms in garrison are to be confined to barracks for the next three days, and in readiness to turn out at a moment's notice if necessary.

A riot occurred at Lismore last night owing to the appearance in the town of some emergency men who are engaged on an evicted farm. The men were attacked in the main street by a mob, owing, it is said, to the observations made by some of them. Stones were freely thrown. The emergency men were reeled through the police-station, and when near it one of them, who was under the influence of drink, presented a revolver to the people, but he was arrested and disarmed by the police. He resisted, and a riot took place. The windows of the police barracks were smashed.

A daring outrage was committed last night in the Knockree district, county Cork. A party of disguised men, numbering about thirty, attacked the dwelling-house of a farmer named Mahony, and opened a fusillade from guns at the family. Before they recovered from their surprise one of the Mahonys was shot in the face, another in the back, while a third had his arm broken from the blow of a gun. No arrests have been made. Knockree is one of the most disturbed districts in the South of Ireland.

At Killbeg sessions, county Donegal, to-day, the Rev. Mr. Moriarty, incumbent of Killbeg, was charged with inciting to riot and murder on the occasion of a riot on the 12th July last, when it was alleged he headed a number of Orangemen, who fired on an opposing mob. The magistrates dismissed the charge.

In connection with the North of Ireland Union Consing Meeting, the draw for which took place this evening at Rostrevor, a good deal of dissatisfaction has been caused in some quarters by the titles given to three dogs entered by Mr. R. M. Douglas. These names are Devil, Death, and Disturbance, and as the names of the immediate progenitors of the animals, are those of a well-known Land League member of Parliament from Ulster and the sister of a very popular member of Parliament in the south of Ireland, and takes an active part in connection with the Land League agitation, the nomenclature of the animals has led to a good deal of discussion. To-day the Belfast Morning News contains a leader on the question by expressing a hope that the Earl of Kilmory, president of the meeting, will declare that he cannot silently endorse a mean attempt to use the Moore Consing Meeting as a medium for offering an insult to an Irish lady, even if the gentleman be left out of consideration altogether.
